

WBCT June 2019 Photographic competition

Competition Code of conduct:

Wilts & Berks Instagram page is an information resource and a community hub for those interested in the canal and its surrounding environment and community. The page is under the management of Wilts & Berks Canal Trust.

We welcome visitors posts to our Instagram and would refer all users and supporters to our Code of Conduct, highlighted below: if you would like a copy of the full Code please get in touch with the page administrator who will be pleased to send you a copy. Regarding the WBCT Instagram competition:

Share with Consent: By sharing your photo for the purpose of this competition you are consenting for us to use the photo for promotional purposes on our social media and publish in our Dragonfly magazine.

Actions that may be taken by management if there are breaches to this Code Posts or other material which are deemed inappropriate by the site administrators will be deleted upon discovery or further banning.

Respect others: be constructive and polite when sending in photos. Do not send in any photos that are disrespectful or illegal.

Understand your personal responsibility: for the opinions and material you post

Be aware of liability: you are responsible for what you post. If your post breaches our rules it will be removed from the competition.

Prizes: The Wilts & Berks Canal Trust are not eligible to provide any prizes other than the winning prize of one trip for 3 on NB Dragonfly and the publishing of the photo on OTB and social media platforms.

Winning: The winner of the competition will be the post that has the most likes on our Instagram page by the time of publication of June OTB in mid-June

Entry: Multiple photos per person are allowed. It is up to Project Heron social media team to decide if any person putting in too many entries will be asked to select a few.
